Step No. 4 of our 1964 plans to wipe out KPFK's deficit dragon

It is heartening to report that KPFK has been able to meet at least some of the outstanding obligations which have been so burdensome. Now the anti-deficit drive is in full stride. The volunteer groups have a number of fund raising and subscription drive projects under way. Also these events are planned:

1. A series of Saturday night benefit events at the Ashgrove.
2. A benefit party sponsored by the Humanist organization.
3. A continuing round of KPFK Saturday night parties.
4. The second annual May Faire.
5. A celebrity-studded revue at a major auditorium.

In addition to these projects, an ongoing survey of potential subscribers is now under way. Also, a telephone survey of past subscribers will be initiated as a year 'round project.

The staff of KPFK is thankful for the support of listeners, and the many, many persons who are working on the deficit dragon drive. If the results of initial efforts is an indication, the station will be operating in the black within a few short months.

Sincerely,

Carl V. May

10:15 GOVERNOR ROSS BARNETT: Mississippi's Governor Ross Barnett was scheduled to speak in the Rindge Technical High School in Cambridge, Mass., but the Cambridge mayor cancelled the appearance with the comment: "If they want to transfer their bloodshed and death from Oxford to Cambridge, let them do it on Harvard property." They did, and this is Barnett's talk with several questions from the floor. (February)

11:05 MUSIC BOXES: Collected by Frank T. Meyer of Olympia, Washington, and recorded by Carlos Hagen. Production by Michael Dayton, with narration by David Ossman. (December)

2:00 "WE WANT TO BE FREE!" Lee Whiting prepared this edited version of the events of the May 26, 1963 Freedom Rally at Wrigley Field. Speakers included Dick Gregory, Paul Newman, Dorothy Dandridge, Rev. Wyatt T. Walker, Dr. Ralph Abernathy, and the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. (May)

3:50 HOW'S THAT AGAIN? Just how unfinished is Schubert's Unfinished? William Malloch tries to answer this question with assorted bits and pieces collected from who knows where. (September)

4:30 I HAVE A DREAM: Rev. Martin Luther King's Freedom March speech, given August 28, followed by Lena Horne's almost banned recording of "Now."

Included are portions of the funeral of Medgar Evers, the mourning procession which followed, and the demonstration and near riot that blossomed from its conclusion. Produced by Dale Minor of WBAI. (July)

8:30 KRENEK PLAYS KRENEK: Dr. Krenek introduces recordings of his own works played by himself, drawn from records, tapes from the Swiss Radio, and tapes made in our own Studio D. Works include his Third Piano Sonata, Sechs Vermessene Basler Massarbeit, and Echoes from Austria. (November)

9:39 FREEDOM SUMMER IN LOS ANGELES: An audio mosaic of people and sounds which tells the events of the integration struggle this summer in Los Angeles. It represents the four areas of concern as they are met locally by Negro leaders: housing, education, employment, and police practices. The sources of the material run the full range of diversity from obscene narrations of arrests, integration group meetings, rallies, press conferences, and personal interviews. Folio classified does bring results, according to a recent informal survey of advertisers, some of whom have been running continuous ads for more than two years. They have found the cost of this kind of advertising to be well worthwhile. KPFK, at the same time, has found its printing costs increasing. A rate increase for classified ads has become necessary. The new rate is: 50c per word, with a special rate of 40c per word for six or more continuous insertions. Most of our advertisers want to keep their ads, an indication of the good response they receive.

FOLIO CLASSIFIED

No advertisement in this Folio is to be construed as endorsement of any organization or business by KPFK or vice versa.

RATES per insertion: 50c per word. 10-word minimum, special rate for 6 or more continuous insertions: 40c per word. Send printed or typewritten copy with check or money order to KPFK, Program Folio, Los Angeles 38. Deadline four weeks prior to publication date.
